WISE REPUBLICANS

Hold a Convention and Put in Nomination a Straight Ticket,

Undiluted by Soreheads or Other Disorganizing Elements.

Stratton for Criminal Judge, Schiefer for Sheriff and Hilbrecht for Auditor.

There was little excitement this morning about the court house regarding the republican convention. A reporter of THE SENTINEL was detailed to unearth the assemblage, and finaliy discerned a knot of leading republicans, a few greenbackers, and no democrats or persons popularly supposed to be "independent" in politics. Gradually, a respectable crowd of delegates and others arrived and the proceedings commenced. Hon. Robert Stratton, chairman of the republican central committee, called the assemblage, which comprised the leaders of the party in the county, to order and made a few appropriate remarks, concluding by nominating Hon. John Morris chairman of the convention, who was elected by acclamation.

Judge Morris said on taking the chair: "The republican party is confessedly in this county in a minority." He said there was no scrambling for office among the republicans, and therefore came to the conclusion that the offices sought the men, and not vice versa. He urged the delegates to put in nomination republicans who will be popular in their party, and not engender internal strife, as in past instances. He urged the convention to forget ancient bickerings and select such men as will have a ghost of a show to get away with the rock-rooted democracy. The judge spoke hesitatingly, as if knowing his remarks were the proper thing and a part of the farce.

J. B. Harper nominated Capt. J. A. Kelsey, of Aboite, as secretary of the convention, who declined on the plea of illness. Col. H. H. Robinson was then nominated and was elected by acclamation.

The roll call of the delegates from townships and wards found all more or less present save representatives from Adams, Maumee and Pleasant.

Hon. Robert Stratton moved the appointment of a committee on credentials to investigate into the matter of the contested delegations of stalwarts and half breeds from Cedar Creek township. The chair appointed Col. R. S. Robertson, Hon. Robert Stratton, Squire English, of Hoagland, Capt. W. A. Kelsey, of Aboite, and O. D. Rogers, of New Haven, as said committee, who withdrew to the U. S. court room to deliberate. Meanwhile there was an interval and the various aspirants for the empty honors of a nomination were about, feebly chinning the gentlemen entrusted to cast ballots. Several candidates for criminal judge were at work. Irvin Stratton pumped the arms of a number of friends. Judge Withers sat gloomy and silent with Judge O'Bourke and A. A. Purman by his side. H. C. Hanna was not represented except by friends, who pulled wires for the young gentleman with commendable activity. If there were other candidates on deck, THE SENTINEL reporter could not discover them at this stage of the game.

On motion of somebody, Mr. T. T. Keator, editor of the Gazette, was made assistant secretary. The democratic journalists present felt slighted, as this was a palpable reflection on the veracity of their reports.

Mr. J. B. Harper moved that a committee be appointed, one from each township and ward, to confer and report as to what officers should be put in nomination by the convention and what offices left vacant. Carried. Judge Morris appointed the following gentlemen to serve: Adams, J. L. Hunter; Cedar Creek, William Bender; Monroe, D. Wilder; Madison, William Devilbiss; Perry and Washington, D. L. Pettit; Milan, T. Perkins; Springfield, J. D. Cummings; Marion and Aboite, A. P. Jackson; Jackson, G. D. Myers; Scipio, J. E. Greenawalt; Wayne, R. S. Taylor; Lafayette, F. Brown; Eel River, J. Hoffman; John Rhodes; Marion, O. E. Jansson; New Haven, Thomas Meads; Pleasant, Mr. Hettey; Jefferson, Ira Wood; first ward, S. S. Ludlum and Ira Rupert; second ward, J. B. Harper; third ward, E. L. Craw; fourth ward, Robert Stratton; fifth ward, S. L. Morris; sixth ward, W. H. Bryant; seventh ward, J. E. Congdon; eighth ward, A. A. Purman; ninth ward, Stephen Chase.

The convention on motion adjourned until 2 p. m.

REASSEMBLED.

The convention reassembled at 2 o'clock p. m. The chairman declared that reports from committees were now in order.

Mr. Stratton, chairman of the committee on credentials, reported that they found all the wards and townships represented. The matter of the contested delegates from Cedar Creek was settled, a mixture of stalwarts and half-breeds being agreed on. The report of the committee was adopted.

The committee appointed on offices through Judge R. S. Taylor reported recommending that nominations be made for the following offices and no others: One representative, judge of criminal court, prosecutor, auditor, treasurer, coroner and commissioner for the third district. Colonel Robertson moved to amend by inserting the office of sheriff, which elicited several faint whoops from jubilant republicans. The report of the committee was not accepted. Mr. A. C. Keel moved to reconsider. Carried. The report of the committee was accepted. Colonel Robertson's amendment was then taken up and voted on by the delegates. Much time was lost and confusion ensued by the efforts at this late time to separate the delegates from the mass of spectators. Mr. R. Stratton explained that offices were left unfilled to give the "people" a chance to co-operate.

The amendment was adopted by a vote of 124 to 36.

D. N. Foster said the party relied on independent democratic votes, and moved to further amend by striking out the office of treasurer. Adopted. The report as amended was adopted.

REPRESENTATIVE.

The nomination of representative was proceeded with. E. G. Anderson nominated James English, of Hoagland, who declined. On motion of H. H. Robinson, Mr. English despite his unwillingness, was nominated by acclamation. Col. Robertson made a humorous point by saying that young men as representatives had not covered themselves with glory in the past. He was in favor of an old man. (Laughter.) Nevertheless Mr. English won't get there.

JUDGE OF CRIMINAL COURT.

The names of Warren H. Withers, Irvin Stratton and Harry C. Hanna were announced. J. B. Harper and A. A. Purman were appointed as tellers. The first ballot stood: Withers, 76; Stratton, 68; Hanna, 29. Eighty-seven and a half votes being necessary for a choice, another ballot was taken. On motion of Mr. Stratton the vote was taken by calling townships and wards, the various chairmen responding. The name of Henry C. Hanna was withdrawn by E. L. Craw in favor of Irvin Stratton. The second ballot stood: Stratton, 107; Withers, 70. With Mr. Stratton, the nominee, there is no fault to find, except that he is inexperienced in the criminal law, and would add little dignity to the bench. Mr. Stratton is moreover by no means a popular candidate, and he will poll only the republican vote. Judge Withers would have been a more formidable candidate. His defeat is ascribed to the fact that he was not anxious to throw to the hungry crowd of partisans, the patronage of his office, but continued to recognize the claims of honest democrats.

In response to loud calls, Mr. Stratton beamed upon the republicans and said he would try and sustain his part in the farce. He confessed he didn't expect the dubious honor of the nomination.

PROSECUTING ATTORNEY.

Mr. Clark Fairbank nominated H. C. Hanna. A. A. Purman said he was authorized to say for Mr. Hanna that he would not accept the nomination, and his name was withdrawn. On motion, it was resolved not to nominate a prosecutor.

AUDITOR.

S. L. Morris nominated Henry Hilbrecht. On motion the nomination

SHERIFF.

J. B. Harper nominated Wm. Schiefer. On motion the nomination was made unanimous.

COMMISSIONERS.

Dick Hays nominated Calvin Anderson. W. H. Bryant was nominated. A motion was made to nominate Mr. Bryant by acclamation. Carried. Mr. Bryant was accordingly called on for a speech.

CORONER.

J. B. Harper nominated Dr. Chas. E. Heaton, who was chosen by acclamation.

The peculiar action on the kidneys and urinary organs of asparagus is frequently noticed during the season. Prof. Benson recently proved in the case of the Emperor William and others that in combination with malt and quinine it is an absolute specific for diseases of the liver, kidneys and urinary organs. His method has been adopted by the Malt Bitters Company and this great German food is now composed of malt, hops, quinine bark and asparagus.—Medical Times.

CONSTANTINOPLE, July 29.—The sultan replying to the verbal representations of Lord Dufferin, British ambassador, requesting immediate issue of a proclamation against Arabi Pacha, stated that such demand cannot be made by England alone, but should proceed from the conference of powers in which case it would receive consideration.

Yellow Fever Raging on the Border.

[By Telegraph to the Sentinel.]

CHICAGO, July 29.—A Laredo special says that advices from Matamoras, Mexico, are that a fever which is prevalent there, called "malarial," proves to be the most virulent type of yellow fever. It is rapidly spreading and black vomit accompanies it. There have been a number of deaths in the past four days, and the disease is regarded as epidemic. Colonel Sate, of the Mexican regular army, lost his wife and daughter and is now dying himself. Brownsville and Matamoras have been quarantined against all lower Rio Grande towns. Great excitement and consternation exist throughout the states. The news was received yesterday and disbelieved. Coast cities will be quarantined at once, as ships have been freely plying between Matamoras and other gulf towns. A dispatch from Austin confirms the news above given, and says the state health officer there has notified the New Orleans board of his action, and will picket the Rio Grande with rangers, if necessary.

A Panic on the Chicago Change.

[By Telegraph to the Sentinel.]

CHICAGO, July 29.—There was almost a panic on 'change up to the noon hour, and a very heavy decline in prices. The drop on regular wheat ranged from 1¼@2½; corn, 1@1½; oats were only a trifle lower; pork declined nearly 75c; lard, 5@10. Fine weather, big reciepts and small shipments, were chief factors in the break.

SOCIETY.

Will-O'-the-Wisp---Skating Carnival--A Pretty Compliment--A New Colony--A Virginian Belle--Juvenile Parties--A Local Authoress--Gossip of the Parlors--Personal.

It must be remembered that these are the vile dog days; that society is taking its midsummer siesta and that together with the unusual hegira to the various neighboring resorts the chronicler of social items seeks vainly for news and gossip that goes to fill up the society columns of the week. But it is only for the moment. The gay world will soon come trooping back and society will seek its wanted haunts.

What will-o'-the-wisps are the pleasure-loving public! It was but the other night a nice comfortable little matron tucked the bon infant, solaced with a sugar plum, in its little bed and rushed breathlessly to the rink in time to secure the coveted skates and join the flying throng, like so many moths who occasionally have their dainty wings singed in the vanities of the moment. Yesterday with the little innocents and the necessary accompaniments of rattle boxes and perambulators hie them to the "grand stand," which is most elaborately decorated for the occasion with a liberal supply of dust and peanut shells, souvenirs of Eliza Jane and her nice young man. "What dreadful men, in those impossible costumes of orange, red and green. If one were only color blind," sighed a pretty little girl, who claps her little hands and cheers lustily nevertheless as the game progresses and animated wagers of cigarettes (for big brothers) and "wax" fill in the intervals. Score sheets are imperatively demanded and with many little frowns and moues, careful tally is kept, the result of which is rather astounding to the masculine friends, to whom it is proudly submitted.

Picnics, excursions, church fairs and the fascinating little rollers have had their day. What may we hope for next?

Next week being the last of the rink, numerous attractions are offered by Mr. Neely who is unanimously pronounced by his patrons as a most genial and courteous gentleman, and his return here next winter will be anticipated. Mr. Daniels, of Chicago, who exited much favorable comment last Tuesday, will Thursday give an exhibition of various feats to the wondering novices who don't see "how he can do so." The fancy dress carnival next Thursday is to be made principally historic and will be a very brilliant tableau vivant, and at least attractive and bright costumes, should be generally adopted It is said one charming little lady will appear as maid of Athens.

Pleasant little messages are received by the many friends in this city of Mrs. Halliday, nee McDonald, who upon arriving in her new home found a large number of elegant presents awaiting her, and is most delightfully located in Cleveland. Dr. and Mrs. Holliday contemplate a visit with friends here in the fall.

A pleasant, and to the recipient entirely unexpected feature of the evening at the rink last Tuesday evening was the presentation of a handsome gold watch to Miss Lizzie Lowry, by her numerous lady friends. The young lady looking very charming in her skating costume of King's blue trimmed elaborately with gold braid, and which would be incomplete without the coquettish little cap, so becoming and chic, skated gracefully forward attended by Mr. Frank Lightfoot and received the pretty little compliment in the sweet unaffected manner that has won her so many friends.

Mrs. Willis Maier and family leave next Tuesday for Sisters Lake, for a sojourn of some weeks. Mr. and Mrs. S. Lumbard also contemplate a trip to the same pleasant resort. As there are already a large number of our society people rusticating there, a small colony is the result, which will exist the remainder of the season according to the satisfactory reports already received.

Miss O. Berry, who was the guest of Miss Nellie Cutshall for a few days en route for a trip through the west, will return soon and remain some time in the city.

Mrs. Oppenheimer and daughter Laura, leave for Toledo to-night to remain some weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Max Nirdlinger, and Mrs. Albert Nirdlinger leave Monday for Detroit, Star Island and various other points of interest, on a trip of six weeks or more.

Mrs. Dr. Rosenthal is in Cincinnati called their by the death of her niece, who has been for some time seriously ill.

Miss Linda Becker will extend her visit in Goshen yet some weeks at the earnest solicitations of friends.

The family of Julius Nathan, and niece, Miss Wiler, Sol. Rothschild and L. Freiberger, P. Kane and families, Mrs. Lamley, Mrs. Falk and Mrs. Drier will spend the remainder of the heated term, at the Sylvan Lake Hotel, Rome City. Picnicing day times and dancing in the evening fill in an agreeable program for the rest of the season. Miss Wiler, who is an accomplished pianist, adds much to the musical part of the program.

The gossip of the past week is:

That a certain young M. D., is very much enamored with a West Berry street belle, and that lovely flowers and delightful rides fill the program con amore.

That the wedding of the young banker and the East Jefferson street belle will occur the first week in September to be followed by a trip through the east and a pleasant boarding house in the winter.

That the moonlight picnic of a number of our young people this week was very moony and done up exceedingly Brown.

That a certain young Cleveland doctor is making active negotiations for one of our most charming young ladies.

That the young ladies lunch that was to have occurred the past week, has been unavoidably deferred.

That in a secret receptacle of a young lady's dressing case lies a white winged messenger from Cleveland, neglected and forlorn, like its author.

That Mrs. Grundy is on the trail of certain hitherto secret flirtations of a well known society lady.

That the flirtations of a well known benedict are something alarming, furnishing numerous dainty tid bits for gossiping tongues and wagging heads.

That a young gentleman in the organ factory sighs constantly Je Suis Desole, and measures the distance to a neighboring town by heart throbs.

That the union of a pretty and engaging young school teacher and a talented young lawyer, is one of the pleasant events to occur in the near future.

That blue blood and good breeding are born and bred in the bone, not acquired, par example, a certain incident in social circles last week.

That a popular young gentleman, of this city, had the portrait of his fiancee done in crayon by one of our talented young artists.

That photographs on placques is the latest acquisition in art that decorate the table and mantles of the æsthetic.

That nothing is more graceful and coquettish than a pretty woman caressing with her lips that exquisite vegetable they call asparagus.

That "baby snatcher" is the descriptive title bestowed on the well-seasoned belle who contemplates marrying a youth much younger than herself.

That in thirty days oyster suppers will levy a tax upon young men's pocket books and gather in the small change left over from the ice cream season.

STRANGE WEDDING FEES.

We knew a clergyman who once received from a wealthy groomsman a bright penny, inclosed in a dozen wrappers. He always persisted in believing that the intention was to give him a twenty dollar gold piece. We were not so credulous.

A clergyman who was formerly located in Hartford, Conn., but now in New York, married not long ago, a couple who at once started for Europe. The bridegroom was a man of wealth, and before he presented himself before the bridal alter he placed a one hundred dollar greenback in his vest pocket to give the parson for the marriage fee, and did not pay it to him as he had supposed.

While crossing the ocean he discovered, greatly to his astonishment, the bill in the pocket where he had placed it, and could account for its presence there only on the theory that he must have had another bill of a different denomination which he had donated to the clergyman by mistake.

On getting back to this country, he determined to solve the mystery, and waited upon the reverend gentleman, who did not recognize him, and enquired if, on a certain date, he did not marry a certain couple. The clergyman remembered the occasion perfectly.

"I know I am about to ask you an impertinent question," said the visitor, "but I should like to be informed what fee you received for performing the ceremony?"

The clergyman recognized the man as the one he had married, and said that he would, of course, gratify him, since he was so anxious to know.

"I received," he went on to say, "a very small quantity of fine-cut chewing tobacco, folded in a very small piece of paper."

That was enough. The only thing [illegible] to be done was to [illegible] day, to be married, and then, after the ceremony was over, fumbled about for a two-dollar bill, and, not being able to find it, said, as he handed the parson a five dollar bill:

"Take the change out of that for a two-dollar job. It's kind o' wet and like to-day, and I guess two dollars will be about the thing."

Of course the amount of a marriage fee is a delicate question, which clergymen are generally too modest to determine, much more to ask; but we never heard it disposed of so neatly as this:

A Quaker married a woman of the Church of England. After the ceremony, the vicar asked for his fees, which he said were a crown.

The Quaker astounded at the demand, said if he would show him any text in the scriptures which proved his fees were a crown, he would give it to him.

Upon which the vicar turned directly to the 12th chapter of Proverbs, 4th verse, where it said: "A virtuous woman is a crown to her husband."

Hints for Housekeepers.

Boiling water will remove tea stains; pour the water through the stain and thus prevent it spreading through the fabric. Ripe tomatoes will remove ink and other stains from white cloth; also from the hands. A teaspoonful of turpentine boiled with white cloths will aid the whitening process. Boiled starch is improved by the addition of a little spermaceti or salt, or both, or gum arabic dissolved. Beeswax and salt will make flat irons as smooth as glass; tie a lump of wax in a cloth and keep it for that purpose, and when the irons are hot rub them with the wax rag, then scour with a paper or rag sprinkled with salt. If a shirt bosom, or any other article, has been scorched in ironing, lay it where bright sun will fall directly on it; it will take it entirely out. Fish may be scaled much easier by dipping them in boiling water for a minute. Cool rainwater and soda will remove machine grease from washable goods. Half a dozen onions planted in the cellar, where they can get a little light, will do much toward absorbing and correcting the atmospheric impurities that are apt to lurk in such places.

The Source of Much Ill Temper.

When your husband comes home in bad humor, jerks off his boots and appears to be generally miserable do not attribute it to business cares or hard times, but to its real cause—those terrible corns which are constantly annoying him. A word to the wise will be sufficient—buy a bottle of Putnams' Painless Corn Extractor. His corns will be quickley and painlessly removed and his gratitude will be unbounded. Putnams' Painless Corn Extractor sold everywhere. Wholesale and retail, Dreier & Bro., Fort Wayne, Ind.

SATURDAY, JULY 29.

THE CITY.

There was a whitewash at police court this morning.

The indications now are that a great many will go to Pleasant Lake to-morrow.

At Winchester yesterday Hon. Wm. Fleming purchased $30,000 worth of Randolph county gravel road bonds.

Miss Annie Carnley an accomplished young lady of Altoona, Pa., is in the city for several weeks, the guest of relatives.

We hear rumors of the matrimonial intentions of our friend Dr. Greenawalt, whose name is whispered by society in connection with that of a charming Bourbon girl, an heiress.

The Wabash road was paid $275 per day for hauling Forepaugh's circus. Railway companies are not particularly desirous of transporting circuses, as an accident invariably provokes a damage suit.

Rev. George O. Barnes, the celebrated mountain evangelist of Kentucky, has been written to by a clergyman of this city with a view to having the blue grass saint come here and prod up saunterting Christians.

Nine hundred dollars was realized clear of expenses by the coppers' excursion. Captain Diehl is treasurer and has the boodle banked subject to orders. There is enough to uniform the force and give each man a handsome balance.

Master Roy Keator, son of the editor of the Gazette, is quite a pedestrian, and may yet get away with the redoubtable Rowell himself. Roy, on a wager, walked around the race track twice, a mile, in eight minutes, and promptly took a purse.

Died, at her parents' residence, 54 Calhoun street, on the 25th inst., Amelia, infant daughter of Wm. J. W., and Fraura Pomeroy, aged one month. The funeral will take place on Sunday at 1 o'clock. Friends of the family are invited to attend without further notice.

Columbia City Herald: "We are much pleased to learn that there will be no opposition to Hon. James L. Worden, for superior judge of the Allen superior court. That the republicans will not put up a candidate against him, but will put his name on their ticket. This is right and proper."

A timid young man confidently came to a SENTINEL reporter last night and said: "D—d if I'm not afraid to go out with a girl—you newspaper fellows are so eager for a sensation." Which means, we suppose, that this young fellow is up to some game which will bear a little ventilation. We shall look after him.

Col. Chas. A. Zollinger, chairman of the democratic central committee, requests us to say that on Monday the Wabash and Muncie roads will sell round trip tickets to the state convention at Indianapolis, at the rate of full fare one way and fifty cents additional. A large number of citizens will avail themselves of this liberal reduction.

The gilded youth of the day wear exceedingly light trousers, well defined waists, suggestive of corsets, hats with curved brims, very loud colors—mostly of a bright red, very light ties and a white flower in the button hole. Their boots taper at the toes to points so sharp as to defy nature and encourage chiropodists. There is a number of these youths a la mode in our little city.

H. G. Thayer, of Plymouth, the wealthy grain buyer who with his brother has an office in this city, has, with eight other rich Indianapolis families, built a magnificent club house at Lake Maxinkuckee, on the line of the New York, Chicago and St. Louis, sixty miles from this city. The natural and artificial attractions of this watering place exceed those of and cool spot in Indiana. A SENTINEL reporter acknowledges a kind invitation from Mr. Thayer to spend a week at the lake.

Lee Linn humorously remarks in his bright paper, the Wabash Courier: "The Fort Wayne breweries are having a little squabble among themselves in regard to the purity of the beer manufactured at their respective breweries. They have called the newspapers to their support, and THE SENTINEL, especially, is already warmly enlisted—for a reasonable consideration, we suppose—in the work of sampling the different brands of the 'cool and foaming' and reporting through its columns the result of its investigations in that line. The sampling is done by a reporter employed by THE SENTINEL for that special purpose, and from a careful reading of THE SENTINEL'S reports made up to this time we have [illegible]

Albert Bond, Will Brackenridge and Wilsie Bayless will attend the Warsaw camp meeting to morrow.

Yesterday, Brown, the Golden Eagle catcher, was struck on the wrist by a hot ball and had to retire to one of the bases.

Louis Schermeyer was taken suddenly ill at the fair grounds yesterday. He was taken to his home, on Wayne street, where he lies in a very precarious condition.

One of the Chicago club endeavored to entice Perry's dog away yesterday. The sagacious canine showed his teeth and ran to his master, who fed the animal on bon-bons.

The case of adultery against Hollis Gillett and the Bluffton woman, Alice Burns, alias Miller, was continued to-day until Friday at 10 a. m., in order to secure witnesses.

Rev. M. Crosley hold his second grove meeting at Pleasant Lake to-morrow. Trains will run from Logansport, Jackson and Fort Wayne. The train leaves Fort Wayne at 9:00 a. m.

The music engaged for the grove meeting to-morrow at Pleasant Lake will be a great attraction. The orchestra of eighteen young ladies and seven young gents will give some fine music.

Billy Meyers yesterday properly pasted a fellow in the nose at the fair grounds. The man saw fit to make disparaging and insulting remarks concerning individual members of the Golden Eagle club.

'Squire Chas. S. Foulks, of Pleasant township, is in the city to-day. The 'squire informs us that the democracy of Pleasant are solid for every man on the ticket. There are no sore heads in reliable old Pleasant.

Guth, the Chicago ball player, lost $100 even on a bet with a fellow at the fair grounds that the Golden Eagles would not make a tally in the ninth inning. Goth was afterwards clubbing himself, so to speak.

Yesterday Alfred Gebert, the Columbia street saloonist, for provoke on Willis V. Hubbard, cheerfully paid $1 and costs to Justice Ryan. Hubbard went to jail in default of $1 and costs for provoking one Joseph Bailey.

A mistake was made by the city papers, THE SENTINEL included, in stating that Chas. Howard, the alleged Monroville burglar, was bound over to jail by Ryan, J. P. Mr. S. M. Hench, Howard's attorney, secured an acquittal for his client, who went back to Lima..

Mr. Frank Cooper, on his resignation from the Gazette will, we understand, remain in the city and in conjunction with a well known amusement manager of Chicago establish a theatrical and lecture circuit embracing a number of towns hereabouts. Mr. Cooper is certainly experienced and we hope to chronicle his success in management.

Capt. G. Conkling Richard has a dangerous rival in the person of Editor Mitchell, who last night saved the greenback county committee a considerable item of expense by himself posting the bills announcing the convention. He slapped the posters on the dead walls in very artistic style. Mr. Mitchell is always obliging and useful.

Dr. H. V. Sweringen, of this city, has been appointed by the secretary of the state board of health of Indiana a member of the committee for the state at large, to co-operate with the local committee of arrangements appointed by the mayor of Indianapolis to make arrangements for the meeting of the American Public Health association in Indianapolis, on the 7th of October next.

We acknowledge the receipt from J. P. Powars, the genial traveling agent of the Wabash, St. Louis and Pacific railroad, a volume by L. W. Reavis, entitled "St. Louis the Future Great City of the World and its Impending Triumph." The work is very valuable and will be read with interest by all, especially by the people of Chicago, who delight in reading of the growth and prosperity of St. Louis.

Relating to the safe blowing at the Avilla station mentioned yesterday we are informed that the depredation was committed by four tramps who stole their tools from a blacksmith and carpenter shop and pump factory. They took $2,000 worth of stamped tickets and a few dollars. The tickets were found in a corn field by Rob [illegible]

A MOTHER'S ENDURING LOVE.

Mrs. Margaret A. Dickenson, the Pretty Milliner, of Chicago, Secures Her Little Daughter—End of the Hotly Contested Habeas Corpus Case.

Our readers will remember the frequent visits to the city of Mrs. Margaret A. Dickenson, the handsome young woman who occupies the responsible position of head milliner in Marshall Fields' great dry goods and millinery establishment, in Chicago. Mrs. Dickenson had a daughter, by her first husband, one Brandon, of Auburn, since dead, and gave her at the age of a year or so into the charge of Stephen E. McKinsey, of Milan township, one of the most honored and respectable citizens of the county. Mr. McKinsey and family learned to love her as their own flesh, and of course did not feel inclined to give up the little one, whom they had reared, to its mother when she came after it. They supposed that the little girl was their legally adopted daughter. Mrs. Dickenson at once commenced habeas corpus proceedings, and the case was triumphantly decided in her favor in the superior and supreme courts.

Thursday Mrs. Dickenson came from Chicago and in company with her attorney, went to Milan township after the child. On their arrival, the little girl evinced a reluctance to go and slipping out of the house hid in a corn field. Finally Mr. McKinsey, who acted in a most honorable manner, went out and found the child and brought her back to her mother, and the party returned to the city. Before leaving yesterday, the little one who all along recognized her mother, became reconciled to leaving her kind foster parents and willingly returned to Chicago with Mrs. Dickenson.

Mr. McKinsey's family were visibly affected on parting with the child.

A SMALL GAME.

The Logansport National Bank Sues John Condon, a Former Fort Wayne Boy, for $10,000, the Amount Lost on Faro by the Defaulting Cashier.

Two complaints were filed Thursday in the federal court at Indianapolis by the Logansport National bank. The first is directed against John Condon, a gambler in Logansport, and the complaint alleges that while Oscar M. Goodwin was cashier of plaintiff's bank, the defendant assiduously solicited his acquaintance and influenced him to sink money on "faro" ond other games, by which the money rightfully belonging to the bank was lost to the extent of $10,000. The defendant is charged with manipulating "faro" at Logansport and Chicago, and the object of the suit is to compel him to disgorge the full amount won from Goodwin while the latter was cashier of plaintiff's bank. The second suit is on hand, with Oscar M. Goodwin and his sureties, Noah L. La Rose, Jacob D. Deritt, Henry C. Eversole, John H. Peck, Catharine A. Goodwin and James P. Martin as defendants. It is specified that Goodwin was appointed cashier in January, 1878, and on the 23d of that month he filed his bond with the co-defendants as sureties in the sum of $25,000, conditioned upon an honest and faithful performance of his duties as such. This position he held until June of the present year, when he was dismissed, owing to a deficiency in his accounts of $16,000. It is further alleged that he destroyed the bond prior to his flight from the state, wherefore a copy of the original cannot be filed. By reason of this shortage, judgement is demanded for $20,000.

The party to the first suit, John Condon, formerly resided in this city. He first came here from Plymouth, where he carried water for a Pittsburg section gang. Shortly after his arrival in the city he entered a barber shop near the south depot as an apprentice and later worked for Fred C. Meyers. Johnnie being young, he had no particular object in life, and gradually drifted into sporting circles. He tended bar for Dennis McFeely, who then conducted the Oyster Bay, corner of Calhoun and Wayne streets, and circulated generally among the jolly gang of sporting men who then made this city their headquarters. In company with John Downey and others Condon was a witness to the fight, at the saloon now managed by Haberkorn, in the course of which Jim Black was stabbed with a file and paralyzed. Downey and Condon were arrested and lodged in jail. While in jail Downey wept bitterly and it was then the warm hearted Condon said: "Downey, don't cry. Although I had nothing to do with the fuss, I'll stand the blame." As a result Downey was released from jail and Condon afterward honorably acquitted. Scarcely had he emerged from the jail, when a party, [illegible] was struck on the head with a hatchet and frightfully injured. He then swore he had "drinked his last drink," and finding it otherwise impossible to shake his companions, he left town and took up his residence at Logansport, where he accumulated a snug fortune. From that day to this not a drop of liquor has crossed Mr. Condon's lips. He has the confidence of all whom he meets at the gaming table, because he plays a square game. A year or two ago he established a palatial gambling house at Chicago on West Madison street, and conducted it successfully until the recent war on gamblers. Mr. Condon has two sisters and no man could be more kind to them than he. The Logansport bank makes a mistake when it says that Condon courted Goodwin's company, for Mr. Condon is too honorable for that. The fact is, that Mr. Goodwin entrusted his money to others, who lost it for him, and the writer knows that most of it Goodwin's boodle was dropped at Mike McDonald's place in Chicago on the occasion of the cashier's visit to that wicked city to dispose of certain bonds entrusted to him for sale. Thus it is that Mike McDonald got the roll, and Johnnie Condon the blame. Whatever may be said of Condon he is strictly honorable in his dealings, and above all, courts no man to play his game.

After writing the above, a SENTINEL reporter met a gentleman who is reliable and well acquainted with both Condon and Goodwin. From him it was learned that Goodwin frequently visited Condon's room to play, but was not permitted to, and on several occasions was ejected from the premises.

A Victory for the Home Nine.

The second game yesterday of the Chicago picked nine with the Golden Eagles, attracted a great crowd. The Chicago boys, who had been too hospitably "entertained" the night previous, were not in the best condition, while our boys on the contrary, worked hard, and were more careful in their play than on Thursday. THE SENTINEL is proud of our home nine, who evinced that when they get down to business they "get there — Eli," to use the popular slang of the day. The Chicago boys were apprehensive, and insisted on Emerson and O'Day being retained before and behind the bat. The home nine got 12 runs to the Chicago men's 11 runs. The crowd cheered wildly as Hutchinson and Webb came in with two runs in the ninth inning, perching victory on Fort Wayne's banner. The Golden Eagles, we are glad to say, retrieved themselves yesterday, and under Captain Jones' cool headed direction played admirably. Some fault was found yesterday by cranks with the playing of Meyers and Bloomhuff, and THE SENTINEL reporter particularly observed their play and is glad to be able to say that these gentlemen acquitted themselves as well as any of the club. Poor Guth of the Chicago nine is not popular in Fort Wayne, but that is no reason why he should have been so grossly insulted as he was on yesterday afternoon. We have met him and know him to be a gentleman even if he does come from Chicago. The gentlemen who bet yesterday nearly all had their money up on the Chicago boys, and including a reporter of this paper, feel sick to-day. It seems to be the best plan to bet on the principle of encouraging home institutions.

Mrs. Wise's Catch.

If the society ladies in the west end should, as is hinted at, organize a base ball club to play in the back yards surrounded by a high fence, of course, we want to insist that Mrs. Charley Wise be given the position behind the bat. Yesterday, one of the Fort Wayne boys knocked a foul which swiftly sailed over into a bevy of ladies seated in the judge's stand. The fair ones gathered up their raiment and fled with delightful little shrieks all but Mrs. Wise, who struck an attitude which would have done credit to a league player and awaited the coming of the ball which she caught skilfully in her daintily gloved palms. The vast crowd at once applauded loudly and Mrs. Wise blushingly bowed her acknowledgements from the stand while a number of gilded youths murmured simpering compliments to the plucky little lady.

Deputy Prosecutor Rodabaugh is deserving of great credit for his activity in probing the horrible ulcers on society and bringing criminals to justice. Mr. Rodabaugh is fearless in the prosecution of his duties, and moreover is possessed of much detective ability. He is just now after a suspected abortionist, who will squirm vigorously if entrapped in the meshes of justice.

Grateful Cops.

To the Public.

The police force of the city desire through the columns of THE SENTINEL to express their heartfelt thanks to the citizens of Fort Wayne and vicinity who so liberally extended their patronage to the excursion, and contributed in every way to make it a success. The "policemen's excursion" is now a fixed institution, and next year the boys in blue hope to have another rouser to Rome City. In behalf of the force.

H. M. DIEHL, Chief.

A Significant Toast.

An Irishman drinking the health of his bishop, gave this toast: "May your riverence live to eat the old hen that crows over your grave." If anything could make that toast true, it is Hunt's Remedy, whose one mission it is to prolong life, and to deliver from the power of insidious and mortal disease. And what more terrible and fatal than kidney and liver diseases! What intense suffering, too, is connected with urinary troubles! Yet here Hunt's Remedy is King, and it works marvels in those who are afflicted with these ailments. Why shouldn't the suffering live to eat the aforesaid old hen, when Hunt's Remedy gives such renewed vigor and health?

A dentist advertises "teeth for seabathing that may be safely chattered."

Skill In The Workshop.—To do good work the mechanic must have good health. If long hours of confinement in close rooms have enfeebled his hand or dimmed his sight, let him at once, and before some organic trouble appears, take plenty of Hop Bitters. His system will be rejuvenated, his nerve strengthened, his sight become clear, and the whole constitution be built up to a higher working condition.

Disease is an effect, not a cure. Its origin is within: its manifestations without. Hence, to cure the disease the cause must be removed, and in no other way can a cure be effected. WARNER'S SAFE KIDNEY AND LIVER CURE is established on just this principle. It realizes that of all diseases arise from deranged Kidneys and liver, and it strikes at once at the root of the difficulty. The elements of which it is composed act directly upon these great organs, both as a food and restorer, and, by placing them in a healthy condition, drive diseases and pain from the system.

For the innumerable troubles caused by unhealthy Kidneys, Liver and Urinary Organs; for the distressing disorders of Women; for Malaria, and for physical derangements generally, this great remedy has no equal. Beware of imposters, imitations and concoctions said to be just as good.
